Well... I'm allergic to felines.
Other than that, I'm fine
If I touch one, I turn into a seal.
Not only that, I'm also a member of the military organation, "The SEALs"
My superior ordered me to investigate illict dealings regarding this school.

Like three or so?
Good thing there aren't many felines here
I could be recalled from my mission...
Turning into a seal is my weak-ness
But it would be bad if my seal form was found out.

Huh...
There's something strange about the weight...

Huh?
Why did you open it?!

Huh... What's stuff like this doing at this school?

It's unlikely a student could get something like this... But is that really the problem?
